

Dear Friends and Benefactors,

Christmas is a special occasion during which to remember our friends, donors and benefactors, who take great care of our orphan children. We are very grateful to you for your constant love and sacrifice which bring us joy and happiness.

We appreciate very much for your loving concern and generous donations towards our children. Rest assured of our daily prayers as well as of the prayers of our children. You will be happy to know that your help and generosity have made a difference in the life of these little orphans.

Our warm congratulations to the Fund Raising Groups and sincere appreciation for their wonderful work which done in favor of our beloved little ones. Good food, clothing, medicines, toys, books and many other items have been made available to them and you can see that their smiling faces is their way to tell you all "THANK YOU".

May the glow of Christmas candle
