

Short Report from St. Peter's Orphanage Chittagong Bangladesh Year 2017

The girls of St. Peter's Orphanage started the year with new spirit and almost ended the year with joy and happiness. All of them almost finish their annual exam. Christmas will come and they are waiting to go their relative's house.

This year 2 girls received Jesus Christ in their life in first time.
And also 4 girls got baptism.

Promita Rose Tonchyanga: We are happy for the good result of Promita Rose in her SSC. She passed in A Grade from Business studies. She went back to her family and continuing her higher secondary studies. Time to time she is communicating with us. She shows her gratitude to us. We wish her bright future.

Teacher taking them catechism class only for our girls.

Some more highlights are in the following:

At Present we have 43 girls. All the girls are going to School except Maya Das.

- 22 girls are going to St. Scholastica's Girls High School
- 5 girls go to J. M. Sen. School.
- 15 girls go to Don Bosco School.
- This year four girls are going to complete their SSC. Three girls are going write their JSC exam and only one girl that is Hasi Rozario is going to write PSC exam.
- Girls are given private tuition. They are given ten tutors. A huge amount is spent for their tuition. Some girls are well benefitted, but some those have low capacity cannot manage their study.
- Beside studies they are keeping well but sometimes some girls got sick and after medication they are keeping well.
- They also join in art competition and "World Literature" and got prizes.
- Sometimes we arrange debate; cultural function in the orphanage and the girls enjoys all the arrangements.
